The Chicago Convention

The mighty throes which for months past have presaged the gathering into one great head all the tubercular and unhealthy secretion of the National body politic, led us to anticipate precisely what would be the condition of poor Chicago when the Presidential lancet punctured the cuticle and freed the festering mass, permitting each element to overflow in just such channels as best suited its fancy or presented the readiest avenue of spreading its dissentious infection The boil has undergone the operation and we have no doubt from this time forward the Union will be in a healthier condition than at any period since sore bonded jealousy and disappointment combined to destroy a government it could not rule From the necessarily limited accounts of the earlier sessions of the Convention received by telegraph, it is impossible to more than speculate upon the nature of the platform adopted by that homogenous assembly The nomination of George B. McClellan for the Presidency, however, would seem to imply a total defeat of the long and laboriously laid schemes of Vallandigham and his anti republican co operators — Peace Democrats With the warlike patriotism uttered by McClellan, at West Point, not sixty days ago, it is impossible for him to stand upon a peace platform From the tenor of the dispatch given in another column this morning, no Convention ever before holden in the United States, was composed of elements equally discordant. The majority by which the nomination was effected could not have been large, and it is certain that the opposing forces will not support him

We regard McClellan's nomination the best that could have been made for the Union cause, for several reasons It assures the re-election of Abraham Lincoln beyond a peradventure. The advocates of McClellan, as a War Democrat, must join the Union forces in decrying the formation of armed secret societies throughout the North, either for resisting the draft or otherwise advantageing rebellion Very many of these 'electors" who have been nominated in different parts of the country must resign, as they are committed to a peace platform in advance and cannot take the stump upon any other The number of partisan journals opposed to the Administration which can without a radical change of sentiment support the Chicago nominee, is very meagre

If, by any contingency, McClellan could be elected President, he would be elected by those in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war, in accordance with his expressed sentiments, and they would listen to no compromise with treason The peace Democrats must now put up an idol of their own, or go over en masse to radical Fremont Either horn of the dilemma thus presented to Northern traitors is alike void of anything calculated to inspire confidence in their ultimate success or awaken in their breast a ray of enthusiasm save that born of desperation

Of George H Pendleton, nominated to the Vice Presidency, we are not prepared to speak Although his name is familiar to some of our readers his public life is not marked by any very striking characteristics, and we this morning can better devote our space than to a Vice Presidential candidate who will not receive electoral votes enough to save his name from the terrible oblivion comprehended in the term "scattering" We commend the resolutions thus far received to the careful perusal of our readers, especially that offered by Gov Hunt, of New York Adjusting "terms of settlement on the basis of the Constitution of the Confederate States" is refreshing

AN OLD TREE —The old elm on the village green of Pittsfield, Mass., has been cut down and sold at auction for ten dollars to a person who received one hundred dollars for a small piece from it within a short time after. The tree was at least three hundred years old, and had been struck several times by lightning The distance from the ground to its first limb was over one hundred feet Everybody in Pittsfield regretted that safety made its removal necessary.

NEW SPECIAL AGENT FOR THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT —Thos J White, if we remember rightly an old resident on this coast, has been appointed Special Agent for the Treasury Department for the Pacific, vice J Ross Browne, and is now on his way out from New York Mr White made a trip through here in the public service about three years ago.

BURNING TIMBER —The British Colonist says that for several days extensive fires have been raging along both sides of the Straits of Fuca A recent number of the Chronicle says they came so near the town of Victoria, burning fences and endangering suburban residences, that the fire department was called out and only saved valuable property by the utmost exertion

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

Proceedings of the Chicago Convention.

Geo. B. McClellan Geo. H. Pendleton Nominated.

CHICAGO, Aug 29 —The Convention was called to order at noon by Augustus Belmont Chairman of the National Committee, who nominated Governor Bigler of California, for temporary chairman who on taking the chair thanked the Convention for the honor conferred

The proceedings of the Convention opened with a prayer by the Rev H H Clarkson

The list of Delegates was called by States Each chairman presented the credentials of his delegation

A resolution was offered by Mr Tilden of New York, that one delegate be appointed by each delegation to report resolutions for the consideration of the Convention, and that all resolutions be referred to the said committee Adopted

Olds, of Ohio moved a committee be appointed to report rules for the government of the Convention and then moved the rules of the last Convention be adopted Carried

Powell of Kentucky, stated that the contesting delegates of that State had agreed and were harmonious in the convention, he would, therefore move that one member from each delegation be appointed on the committee of resolutions, and that the two have but one vote Adopted

McDougall, of California moved that three gentlemen from each organized Territory be admitted in the Convention and be allowed to participate without a vote

Morgan, of Ohio moved to amend by extending the same privilege to delegates [illegible]

The amendment was accepted and resolution referred to the proper committee

Wickliffe, of Kentucky, sent two letters to the chairman from Kentucky delegates, which were read, in which they explained their absence By saying that they were the victims of military despotism, were arrested without cause imprisoned and denied resort to the legal means guaranteed by the laws of the State and Constitution to establish their innocence They profess increased devotion to the Democratic cause, and advise the adoption of a peace platform, and are hopeful of the success of the nominees of the Convention The letters were laid on the table

On motion, each delegation through its chairman named a person to serve on the Committee on Credentials

Olds, of Ohio, moved that the Committee be instructed to report what, if any action would be necessary for the Convention to take regarding the late military order of Gen Heintzelman, prohibiting the people in the North west from purchasing arms and ammunition. Referred

The following resolution was then offered by Gov Hunt, of New York and referred

Resolved, That in the future as in the past, we will adhere with unwavering fidelity to the Union and the Constitution, and insist upon the maintaining of our Nationality as the only solid foundation of our strength, security and happiness as a people, and as the framework of the Governments equally conducive to the welfare and prosperity of all the States, Northern and Southern and with a view of terminating the raging conflict and restoring the blessings of peace, we are in favor of an armistice, earnest and honorable efforts to adjust terms of settlement and union on the basis of the Constitution of the Confederate States and for a final solution of all difficulties, we would recommend a Convention of the States to review the Constitution and adopt such amendments and modifications as may seem necessary to more fully secure to each State the enjoyment of all its rights undisturbed, and the control of its domestic concerns according to the original intent and purpose of the Federal compact

Long, of Ohio, offered the following

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of one member from each State represented, to be selected by the respective delegations, be appointed for the purpose of proceeding forthwith to Washington in behalf of this Convention and people and ask Lincoln to suspend the operation of the draft for a half million more men, until the people decide the question now fairly presented before them war or peace, at the approaching election, and that said committee be, and hereby are instructed to urge upon Lincoln, by whatever argument they can employ, to stay the flow of fratricidal blood, at least so far as the impending draft will continue to augment it, until the people, the source of all power have an opportunity for expressing their will for or against a further prosecution of the war in the choice of candidates for the Presidency

Price of Missouri, offered a resolution declaring that the Constitution and Union must be maintained in all their purity

Aldrich, of Pennsylvania, introduced a resolution declaring that we cannot view with indifference the open repudiation of the Monroe doctrine in the establishment of an empire on the ruins of neighboring republics, and view with alarm and distrust the fearful strides of the administration towards despotism in its interference with States rights, liberty of speech and the press and the rights to private property, and call on all incorruptible patriots to lay aside partisan prejudices and assist in changing the present rulers

Resolved, That we will use all honorable means to bring a speedy termination to the unhappy difficulties which now disturb the country

The Convention adjourned till 10 o'clock to morrow

The city is crowded to excess, and the streets and squares about the principal hotels are filled with immense throngs Meetings were held in different parts of the city, and at this hour (midnight) the excitement continues

The Committee on Resolutions held a meeting tonight.

Guthrie, of Kentucky, was chosen chairman over Vallandigham by four majority

CHICAGO, Aug 30 —Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock

The Committee on Credentials reported against the admission of delegates from Territories and the District of Columbia, and are also in favor of admitting both delegates from Kentucky, each to cast half a vote Report adopted

Hughes, chairman of the Committee on Organization, reported that the Committee had unanimously agreed upon Horatio Seymour, of New York, for President, who took the chair amid prolonged applause

One Vice President from each State was also appointed

On motion of Cox, of Ohio, Amos Kendall, President of the National Conservative Convention, was allowed to present a communication containing the action of the Conservative Union National Convention held in this city on the 27th The wish so applause followed the reading of the resolution by the Secretary, recommending McClellan for the Presidency

Guthrie, chairman of the committee on resolutions, stated that several resolutions referred to said committee yesterday had been referred to a sub committee, and that there was reason to believe that they would be ready to report this afternoon Furthermore, there was a fair prospect of arriving at a harmonious conclusion He proposed a recess until 4 o'clock, After considerable discussion the motion was put and carried

The attendance to-day, both inside and outside of the convention is even greater than yesterday. The enthusiasm seems to be on the increase

On reassembling at 4 o'clock, Guthrie stated that the committee had agreed and were ready to report The resolutions were read as follows

Resolved, That in the future as in the past, we will adhere with unwavering fidelity to the Union under the Constitution, as the only solid foundation of our strength, security and happiness as a people and as a framework of government equally conducive to the prosperity and welfare of the States both North and South

Resolved, That this Convention does explicitly declare, as the sense of the American people that after four years of failure to restore the Union by an experiment of war, during which under pretense of military necessity or the war power, higher than the Constitution itself, it has been disregarded in every part, and public liberty and private rights trodden down, the material property of the country essentially impaired, justice humanity and liberty and the public welfare demand that immediate efforts be made for cessation of hostilities with the view to an ultimate convention of States, or other peaceable means to that end and that at the earliest practicable moment peace may be restored on the basis of the Federal Union of the States

Resolved, That direct interference of the military authority of the United States in recent elections in Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri and Delaware was a shameful violation of the constitution and a repetition of such acts in the approaching election will be held as revolution and will be resisted with all the means and power under our control

Resolved, That the aim and object of the Democratic party is to preserve the Federal Union and the rights of the States unimpaired and they here by declare that they consider any attempt extraordinary and arbitrary powers not granted by the Constitution are usurpations Civil by military laws in States not in rebellion arbitrary imprisonment trial and sentence of American citizens in any State where civil law exists in full force, the suppression of free loss of speech and the press the denial of the right of asylum, and an open and avowed disregard of State rights, employment of unusual force, the interference with and the domination of the people to bear arms in hostile force are calculated to prevent a return of the Union and perpetuate the Government here on the just powers from the consent of the governed

Resolved, That the unmanful disregard by the Administration of its duty in respect to our fellow citizens who are and have long been prisoners of war in a suffering condition deserves the severest reprobation on the score alike of public and common humanity

Resolved, That the sympathy of the Democratic party is heartily and earnestly extended to the soldiery of our Army who are now and have been in the field under the flag of our country and in the event of our coming power, they will receive all care and protection the brave soldiers of the republic have so nobly earned

Long offered an amendment to come in after the first resolution, being the first Kentucky resolution of 1798

Under the ruling of the President, the resolution went to the committee under operation on the previous question The resolution was reported from the committee and adopted with but few dissenting voices

Motion to proceed to the nomination of a candidate for President

Stockton, of New Jersey, nominated George B McClellan

Salisbury, of Delaware, nominated Powell of Kentucky, who returned thanks, but fully believed the crisis demanded that a candidate should come from a non-slaveholding State Believing it to be so, he desired to withdraw his name.

Stewart, of Ohio, nominated Thos H Seymour, of Connecticut

Wickliff of Kentucky, nominated Franklin Pierce, of New Hampshire

Harris, of Maryland seconded the nomination of Seymour and proceeded to eulogize his party services and ability He denounced McClellan as a tyrant, it was he who first initiated the policy by which our rights and liberties were stricken down His remarks created some excitement, and for the remainder of the session, considerable confusion prevailed He read McClellan's order for the arrest of the Maryland legislature and proceeded to comment on the same The confusion was so great that the speaker's remarks could not be heard for some time The President insisted that the Convention should come to order

Harris proceeded to say that McClellan has assassinated State rights and was a usurper of civil liberties, and if nominated, he would be beaten everywhere He wouldn't himself vote for him

Carrigan of Pa, raised to a point of order the gentleman having said he wouldn't vote for McClellan, he hadn't a right to a seat in the Convention

The President decided the point well taken, and amidst great confusion, Harris retired

Gen Morgan, of Cumberland Gap fame, as a fellow soldier with McClellan, could not remain silent when the name of that distinguished General was so shamefully implicated, and explained the General's course in arresting the Maryland legislature, and the conspiracy formed between certain members of the legislature to furnish aid to John Smith who was then threatening invasion into Maryland Gen. McClellan would have been a traitor to his country had he done less

Hall, of Conn, paid high eulogy to T H Seymour, but added that his name had been used without his consent

Wickliffe, of Ky, withdrew the name of Pierce

Holman, of New Jersey, moved that the debate on the candidates be closed, and then moved previous question

McNeil, of Illinois, (on behalf, as is believed of a majority of delegates northwest,) nominated Horatio Seymour, and prolonged cheers

The President declared the motion out of order

A motion to adjourn was now made, and declared out of order

Long, of Ohio, took a stand in opposition to McClellan, and declared he was as guilty as Lincoln in making arbitrary arrests, suspending writ of habeas corpus, helped enforce odious emancipation proclamation of Lincoln, and was a willing instrument of a corrupt and tyranical administration

Carrigan, of Penn, replied, quoting from McClellan's letters to Burnside and Halleck, where he admonished them that the only object of the war was the preservation and integrity of the Union The last two speeches were constantly interrupted by motions to adjourn objections being raised in all quarters of the Convention, but as it was rapidly growing dark, and as gas had not been introduced into the building, the opponents to adjournment, who were evidently strongest, were compelled to concede the point, and the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to morrow.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to August 31.

LATER FROM MOBILE.

FORT MORGAN CAPTURED!

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Rumors are current here and credited in the best financial circles that the Government has decided to send five commissioners composed of two Republicans and three Democrats to arrange preliminaries, and it is also rumored that the commissioners are on their way to the rebel capital.

Information has been received confirming the reports that Fitzhugh Lee was killed and that Gen. A. P. Hill was mortally wounded in the 21st on the Weldon Railroad.

It is reported this morning with a degree of positiveness that Hooker will be immediately assigned to an important command in the field.

The steamer Hare from North Carolina learns the news that the steamer Coquette, one of the number in Wilmington, is receiving her armament. She is considered the most formidable of all of them and will be the first to leave if not already out.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—On the 26th, Gen. Hancock, south of Reamus' Station, was attacked several times during the day, but repulsed the enemy every time. At half past five, a combined assault was made on his left and centre, which, after one of the most desperate battles of the war, resulted in the withdrawal of the enemy, leaving their dead and wounded on the field.

Official details from Grant, Meade and Hancock say that they hold Weldon Railroad.

In a dispatch dated 3 o'clock P. M., yesterday, Grant says the rebel loss on Weldon Railroad seems to be greater than ours. The enemy can't stand it. I don't think I overrate the enemy's loss in the last two weeks by stating it at 10,000 killed and wounded. We lost heavily, but the most were captured.

On the morning of the 28th the enemy drove in Butler's line of pickets. The guard soon rallied and drove the enemy back and re-established their former line.

(Signed) STANTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Passengers by the mail boat from City Point report that on the 25th a division of the 2d corps, in the vicinity of Reams' Station, on Weldon Railroad, was attacked by a large force, supposed to be Hill's entire corps, and were compelled to fall back gradually, disputing every inch of ground. The fighting was mostly hand to hand, and was still progressing at 4 o'clock. Our men had gained a secure position, and movements were being made to put the enemy on a retrograde in turn. It is reported that we lost three batteries, including Sleeper's celebrated Massachusetts Battery.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—A dispatch from Grant says:

Richmond papers of the 27th announce that Fort Morgan is in our possession, but it is not stated whether it surrendered or was blown up.

Another dispatch gives the following from yesterday's Richmond Examiner:

Fort Morgan is in the enemy's possession; whether it was blown up or evacuated is not positively known.

Sheridan, in a dispatch dated the 27th, 2:30 P. M., reports as follows:

The enemy left my front last night and are falling back to Smithfield or Middleburg. We captured 100 prisoners yesterday, and inflicted a loss of one hundred killed and wounded upon the enemy.

There have been feints to cross the river with cavalry at Williamsport. No strength was shown.

The latest intelligence from Shenandoah Valley represents a large part of the rebel force withdrawn towards Richmond.

The latest reports from Sherman represent that thus far the recent movements to occupy the rebel's lines of supply had been successful.

(Signed) STANTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The Atlanta papers of the 27th say Fort Morgan surrendered with all its garrison, including Gen. Page, guns, munitions of war, etc.

The capture of Fort Morgan is fully confirmed by dispatches from Grant and Sherman who derive information from the Richmond and Mobile papers.

CITY POINT, Aug. 29.—Abraham Lincoln:—Since my dispatch this morning, I have received the Richmond Sentinel of the 27th, which contains the following from Mobile:

The report of the surrender of Fort Morgan was most unexpected. We await an explanation of the unfortunate occurrence. The people of Morbile are hopeful and confident of their ability to hold the city. (Signed) GRANT.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—George B. McClellan and George H. Pendleton were nominated by the Democratic National Convention.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Richmond papers of the 23d contain an account of the last assault on the Weldon railroad: We have met with repulses costing us many brave men, but the affair is not over. Brig. Gen. Saunders, of Ala., was killed, Gen. Lamar, Fla., mortally wounded, and Gens. Baston, Finnegan and Anderson, of Alabama, mortally wounded.

Grant's design on Danville road is now revealed; and all the energy and gallantry of the armies of Lee and Beauregard won't be too much to beat back this bold movement south of Petersburg. According to the Petersburg papers the Petersburg and Lynchburg Railroad is considered in danger.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Gold 242@245; market very weak and fluctuating.

Greenbacks to-day advanced to 45 with an upward tendency.

California News.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 1.—The State Convention nominated for electors at large, J. C. McCullum, of Eldorado, and Sam Brannan, of San Francisco county.

From the first district—Charles Maclay, of Santa Clara; second district—W. W. Crane, of Alameda; third district—Oliver, from Siskiyou.

The State Central Committee are said to be anti-shorthair.

The Second District Convention nominated Higby by acclamation; Third District nominated John Bidwell; Second District nominated McRuer.

The steamer Yosemite ran into the Washoe near Rio Vista, on Tuesday evening, smashing the guards and wheel house forward of the wheel.

Legal tenders closed firm, yesterday, at 42; bid for 43 was asked, with an upward tendency.

The Sierra Nevada will leave on Tuesday next the 6th inst., for Portland direct.

DR. H. BIGELOW OCULIST and AURIST, (lately associated with Dr. Pardee, at San Francisco,) has opened an office at No. 86 Front street, corner Washington, opposite the Pioneer Hotel, Portland

Resolutions of the Union National Convention.

ADOPTED BY THE CONVENTION IN SESSION IN BALTIMORE, JUNE 8, 1864.

1 Resolved, That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain inviolate at all their common sacrifices the integrity of the Union and the paramount authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that, laying aside all differences and political opinions, we pledge ourselves as Union men animated by a common sentiment, to do everything in our power to aid the Government in quelling by force of arms the rebellion now raging against its authority, and in bringing to condign punishment those who have proved themselves traitors and traitors armed against it.

2 Resolved, That we approve the determination of the Government of the United States not to compromise with rebels or listen to any terms of peace except such as may be based upon an unconditional surrender of their hostility and a return to their just allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and that we call upon the Government in the firm maintenance of this position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost possible vigor to the complete suppression of the rebellion, in the full reliance upon the loyal, self-sacrificing patriotism, heroic valor and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions.

3 Resolved, That as Slavery was the cause, and now constitutes the strength of this rebellion and as it must be, always and everywhere, hostile to the principles of republican government justice and the national safety demand its utter and complete extinction from the soil of the Republic. And that while we uphold and maintain the acts and proclamations which the Government, in its efforts to defend the life of the nation, has found it necessary to put forth as indispensable to the accomplishment of these ends, we are in favor, furthermore, of such an amendment to the Constitution, to be made by the people, in conform ty with the provisions as shall terminate and forever prohibit the existence of slavery within the limits or jurisdiction of the United States.

4 Resolved, That the thanks of the American people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the army and navy, who have periled their lives in defence of their country and in vindication of the honor of the flag; that the nation owes to them some permanent recognition of their valor, and ample provision for those of their survivors who have received honorable wounds in the service of the country; and that the memories of those who have fallen in its defence, shall be held in grateful and everlasting remembrance.

5 Resolved, That we approve and applaud the practical wisdom, the unselfish patriotism and the unswerving fidelity to the Constitution and the principles of American liberty with which Abraham Lincoln has discharged under circumstances of unparalleled difficulty, the great trusts and responsibilities of the highest office in the gift of a free people; and that we do hereby tender to him the honor of a renomination for the Presidency.

6 Resolved, That we deem it essential to the general welfare that harmony should prevail in the National councils, and we regard as worthy of official trust those only who cordially indorse the principles proclaimed in these resolutions and which should characterize the administration of the Government.

7 Resolved, That the Government owes to all men employed in its armies, without regard to distinction of color, the full protection of the laws of war, and that any violation of these laws, or the usages of civilized nations in time of war, by the rebels now in arms, should be made the subject of prompt and full redress.

8 Resolved, That foreign emigration, which in the past has added much to the wealth, development of resources and increase of power to this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

9 Resolved, That we are in favor of the speedy construction of a railroad to the Pacific.

10 Resolved, That the national faith, pledged for the redemption of the public debt must be kept inviolate, and for this purpose we recommend economy and rigid responsibility in the public expenditures and a vigorous and just system of taxation; that it is the duty of every loyal State to sustain the credit and promote the use of the national currency.

11 Resolved, That we approve the position taken by the Government, that the people of the United States can never regard with indifference the attempt of any European power to overthrow by force and supplant by fraud, the institutions of any Republican Government on the Western Continent, and will view with extreme jealousy, as menacing the peace and independence of their own country, the efforts of any such power to obtain new footholds for monarchical governments sustained by foreign military force in near proximity of the United States.

Oregon State Sanitary Fair!

To the Citizens of Oregon.

It is proposed to hold a Sanitary Fair at Salem, during the State Fair, commencing on the 27th of September next. In view of the urgent necessities of the Sanitary Cause and of the duty we all owe to make it a success, it is earnestly hoped that every friend of humanity and every lover of this country residing in Oregon will respond to this call.

We can say to those at a distance that ample room and shelter will be provided for all their contributions.

In suggesting these committees we presume that one will be unable to act to which we shall say proper substitutes are to be selected at once, so that every where in the State there may be an active and energetic body who will labor for the cause here and elsewhere, and so that no call in all the country will be merely heard.

Once it has been determined by the undersigned only to those called to act as a Committee to fulfill their whole duty in bringing the largest possible success will crown our efforts. From every woman in the State we expect something of handiwork. Every description of ornamental work which busy fingers can execute, from the long list of knitting, from a pair of socks to a mat or children's shawl, to the work from the ability will to the finest dress in fashion, for all women. The full list of the variety be so complete that no want may be unsupplied. Every article of farm produce which will bring enough to pay for time and its trouble.

To the fair here we look for help. Let your offerings be as generous as your hearts, and no kitchen will become important feature of the fair. Nothing will be more whether from the products of the soil, of dairy or poultry.

From the merchant and manufacturer, mason and tinsmith we ask but the same generosity of heart and liberality of purse as that each one may be represented in all her growing wealth and greatness.

The County Committees whose names are below are requested to solicit and receive contributions and arrange for their being forwarded to Salem at the proper time. It is desired that the County Committees also appoint sub committees to aid them in their work; each member or committee recollecting if they cannot get themselves to endeavor to procure substitutes so that there may be neither neglect nor delay in making the necessary arrangements.

All organized Sanitary Aid Societies are invited to give this matter their special attention.

To the Loyal Men and Women of Oregon.

Many of the patriot ladies in different parts of the State, have expressed to me a wish to be permitted to hold a Sanitary Fair, on the grounds of the State Agricultural Society, near Salem, during the continuance of the State fair, commencing on the 27th of September. I have not deemed it necessary to call a meeting of the Board of Managers for the purpose of having it consented to, as every one of that body will, I am sure, feel themselves honored and pleased to be officially associated, when I say that it is with pleasure that they yield to the wishes of these great hearted women.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without loss of their oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown, and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A A HAYES M D

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth, U S Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and is now recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 9, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofulous all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong, and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H Anders & Co, Physicians and Chemists, New York.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant rail, sea and farm—islands in the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DR ARI SELANTA TION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

RESIDENT, Wis. Sept 10, 1864.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—often children and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * * O A FLAUT.

SOUTH WARSAW O July 28 1863.

* * * One young man who had been sick and laid out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters. EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, Fifty Seventh Street, N. Y.
NEW YORK, August 4, 1863.

DR. DRAKE. Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular with pains in her head, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS O M BEVOR.

* * * I owe much to you for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life. REV W H WAGGONER, Madrid, N Y.

* * * Then will send me two bottles more of my Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.

Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and I find to abuse in preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me. REV J S CATHORN, Rochester, N Y.

* * * Send us twenty four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect. G W ANDREWS, Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H B RINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

O C MOORE, 254 Broadway, N Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature a great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Callisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c all preserved in perfectly pure St Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c, deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.
